Travel Details
San Francisco Immersion

Travel
- Reminder to review air carrier’s regulations on
  - Carry-on luggage (liquid regulation, size, number, etc.)
  - Checked luggage (number allowed, weight, fees, etc.)
  - Have proper identification for airport check-in

Transfer
- Student is responsible for airport transfers
  - Super Shuttle may be your best option to get to the Stanford Terrace
    Make reservations through 800-BLUE VAN or http://www.supershuttle.com/
- Hotel
  - Rooms covered from Sunday, February 26 – through and including Friday, March 2. Must check out on Saturday, March 3. Arrangements for additional evenings should be made on your own.
- Amenities
  - Internet access
  - Fitness center

Meals
- Breakfast is provided at the hotel or nearby each morning
- Opening dinner on Sunday night is provided.

Meetings
- First required activity is group meal is 7:00 p.m. on Sunday in the hotel conference room.
- Unless otherwise noted, meet in the hotel lobby at designated times.
- Student Expectations
  - Punctual, responsible, engaged, respectful, etc.
  - Be flexible – itinerary may change at last minute
- Dress code
  - Business Casual (no t-shirts, jeans, sneakers)
  - Remember to take name badge

In case of emergency
- If your travel plans change or a relative needs to get in touch with you, a message should be left at the hotel front desk for Dr. Gustafson. The hotel information is:
  - Stanford Terrace Inn – February 26 – 28, Phone 800 729 0332
    http://www.stanfordterraceinn.com/
  - Hotel Diva – February 29 - March 3, Phone 415 885 0200
    http://www.hoteldiva.com/
  - Dr. Gustafson’s cell phone number is (814) 883 2464

Student Representatives (Vivek Garg)
- Will take attendance on the bus and at meetings so we can be sure we haven’t left someone behind.
- Will phone your room and leave a message in the event of a schedule change. Remember, sometimes plans change at the last minute which is not within our control.

Photographers
- Need a volunteer to take pictures on the trip.
  - After trip, turn in two photos from each day to Melissa Casey.